Dear

ENVIRONMENTAL INFORMATION REGULATIONS 2004 - DISCLOSURE

The council has completed its search relating to your request for information about Lowca Wind Farm, which we received on 29 July 2015.

The council does not hold information within the definition of your request.

Question

I am writing to enquire as to whether you could provide me with the pre-construction Ecological Impact Assessment records for Lowca wind farm, under the Freedom of Information Act. If you don't hold these records, the company name of the ecological consultancy that carried out the EIA would be greatly appreciated.

Response

Copeland Borough Council was the planning authority who dealt with Lowca Wind Farm in 1998. The planning application number is 4/98/0486. We have made some enquiries with the Planning Department and they confirmed there have been no further submissions for a wind farm on this site.

Cumbria County Council does not hold any information on this application.

Most of the information that we provide in response to requests submitted under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 and Environmental Information Regulations 2004 will be subject to copyright protection. In most cases the copyright will be owned by Cumbria County Council. However the copyright in other information may be owned by another person or organisation, as indicated on the information itself. You are free to use any information supplied in this response for your own non-commercial research or private study purposes. The information may also be used for any other purpose allowed by a limitation or exception in copyright law, such as news reporting. However, any other type of re-use, for example by publishing the information in analogue or digital form, including on the internet, will require the permission of the copyright owner. Where the copyright owner is the council you will need to make an application under the Re-use of Public Sector Information Regulations 2005.

For information where the copyright is owned by another person or organisation you must apply to the owner to obtain their permission.

If you are dissatisfied with the way the council has responded to your request you can request an Internal Review. If you would like to request a Review please contact the Information Governance Team using the details at the top of this letter.

Further information can be found on the council's website: <http://www.cumbria.gov.uk/council-democracy/accesstoinformation/internalreviewscomplaints.asp>

Yours sincerely,
