- Analysing aggregated, anonymised or pseudonymised health data (including COVID-19 case and contact tracing data; births and deaths data, and Hospital Episode Statistics) used by Cumbria County Council's Performance and Risk team in supporting the effective and efficient discharge of its statutory duty and wider responsibilities to improve and protect the health and wellbeing of the populations it serves, and reduce health inequalities.

Data Collection

While providing services we collect data from our customers in the following ways:

- electronic systems including Public Health England and NHS England
- by email; or
- by telephone.

Data Types

The following data is required to meet legal obligations and to enable officers to reach informed and robust recommendations and decisions:

- name
- age
- date of birth
- address
- contact details, including email addresses, telephone numbers

We may also collect, store and use the following 'special categories' of more sensitive personal information:

- health conditions
- social care and welfare arrangements

Legal Basis for Processing Data

When we collect your personal data (such as name, age, address) we rely on the following legal bases:

- GDPR Article 6(1) (c) Legal Obligation

Where the council is relying on GDPR Article 6(1)(c) all Relevant Legislation is listed below.

When we collect your 'special categories of personal data', (such as health, race, ethnicity, sexual orientation) we rely on the following legal bases:

- GDPR Article 9(2) (i) Public health

Relevant Legislation

These legal bases above are underpinned by acts of legislation that dictate what actions can and should be taken by local authorities, including:

- Health Protection (Notification) Regulations 2010

Automated Decision-Making/Profiling

We do not use your information for automated decision-making or profiling purposes.

Data Transfers

Your personal data is not transferred to a third country or international organisation.

Redaction

We operate a policy where we routinely redact the following details before making forms and documents available online:

- contact details e.g. telephone numbers, email addresses
- signatures
- personal or special category data
- information agreed to be confidential or commercially sensitive

Occasionally it may be considered necessary, justified and lawful to disclose data that appears in the list above. In these circumstances the council will make all reasonable efforts to contact you if this processing is going to have an impact on your rights or privacy.

Data Sharing

We may share your information with the following organisations:

- District Councils
- Central Government Departments
- Cumbria Constabulary
- NHS Clinical Commissioning Groups

While responding to your enquiries or complaints it may be necessary to share your personal data with other parts of the council or other public bodies or organisations. The council will make all reasonable efforts to contact you if this processing is going to have an impact on your rights or privacy.

Data Security and Retention

All of the information you give us will be kept safe and secure whether it is written or on a computer system. We will treat any personal information confidentially and will comply with the Data Protection Act 2018. This means that, if we keep any of your personal data we must:

- tell you what information we need to collect from you
- only use the information for the reason we have agreed with you
- not ask for more information than we need to provide the services

- let you see any information we have collected about you, on request
- keep the information safe, secure and confidential
- personal information will be deleted in accordance with council policy

The information you supply will be kept on a secure council system and can only be accessed by authorised employees within the Performance and Risk Team.

Cumbria County Council will only store your information for as long as is legally required in accordance with the council's Retention and Disposal Schedule or in situations where there is no legal retention period established best practice will be followed.

Your Rights - Data Subject Access

The General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) provides you with the right to access information the council, as a public authority holds about you. Upon receipt of a valid request the council will:

- provide you with a response within one month
- let you know if your request is subject to an extension
- make reasonable efforts to comply with the format of your request
- inform you if your request is going to be refused or a charge is payable

You can make a Data Subject Access Request by contacting:

Email: information.governance@cumbria.gov.uk

Your Rights - Other

In addition to your right of access the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) also gives you the following rights:

- the right to be informed via the council's Privacy Notice
- the right to withdraw your consent. If we are relying on your consent to process your data then you can remove this at any point
- the right of rectification, we must correct inaccurate or incomplete data within one month
- the right to erasure. You have the right to have your personal data erased and to prevent processing unless we have a legal obligation to process your personal information
- the right to restrict processing. You have the right to suppress processing. We can retain just enough information about you to ensure that the restriction is respected in future
- the right to data portability. We can provide you with your personal data in a structured, commonly used, machine readable form when asked

- the right to object. You can object to your personal data being used for profiling, direct marketing or research purposes
- you have rights in relation to automated decision making and profiling, to reduce the risk that a potentially damaging decision is taken without human intervention

Where our processing of your personal data is based on your consent, you have the right to withdraw your consent at any time. If you do decide to withdraw your consent, we will stop processing your personal data for that purpose, unless there is another lawful basis we can rely on – in which case, we will let you know. Your withdrawal of your consent won't impact any of our processing up to that point.

Where our processing of your personal data is necessary for our legitimate interests, you can object to this processing at any time. If you do this, we will need to show either a compelling reason why our processing should continue, which overrides your interests, rights and freedoms or that the processing is necessary for us to establish, exercise or defend a legal claim.

Unless otherwise stated above you can exercise any of these rights by contacting:

Email: dataprotection@cumbria.gov.uk
Post: Cumbria County Council, Legal and Democratic Services, 1st Floor, Cumbria House, 117 Botchergate, Carlisle, Cumbria CA1 1RD
Online: Contact Form

Verifying Your Identity

When exercising the rights mentioned above please be aware that under GDPR Article 12(6) additional information can be requested to verify that you are the data subject if your identity is unconfirmed. Please note that:

- additional documentation is only required when the council cannot verify your identity using internal council systems that relate to the service you are requesting information about
- the council will contact you for this documentation prior to processing your request
- the statutory deadline for responding to your request will start when you have provided the additional documentation
- failure to provide additional documentation may lead to the council rejecting your request.
