

Some places to find materials for teaching mathematics at home

www.bbc.co.uk/education	Free 'Bitesize' animations and interactive games online for maths and other subjects - primary and secondary. www.homeschoolmath.net	Primary. Free resources and advice. American http://uk.mathletics.com/	Primary. Also popular in schools with many pupils using the site at home. Charges for subscription www.galorepark.co.uk	Primary and secondary. Workbooks and revision books on sale with free sample pages. www.cgpbooks.co.uk	Primary and secondary text, work and revision books on sale. Free online games. Local company. https://nrich.maths.org/	Free problem solving activities for primary and secondary age ranges. https://uk.ixl.com	Maths all ages. https://www.khanacademy.org	Free wide range of subjects ages from 10ish

www.conquermaths.com	Step-by-step video lessons- subscription required. Most popular with our HEs. www.open.edu/openlearn/	Free learning from the Open university- up to GCSE www.citizenmath.com/	Good videos working towards functional maths to GCSE equivalent. http://mrthorne.com/	Primary. Free online interactive resources, includes maths, e.g. multiplication tables. https://www.tes.com/teaching-resources	Lots of free resources, including primary and secondary mathematics. Requires registration. https://www.gov.uk/government/collections/national-curriculum	National Curriculum for England (Not a requirement for home education but offers a useful overview of programmes of study and attainment targets for all subjects, at all four key stages)