NB- The substantial 1920 Organ work was to rebuild and enlarge the 1844 'Bishop of London' organ, previously rebuilt in the West Gallery in 1866 by Jardine of Manchester. This work, again by Jardine, was to split the case into two above the choir (Swell, some Great and most pedal stops on the south side), Choir stops, most of the Great & some pedal on the north. The tracker action was replaced by electro-pneumatic and the console detached below the north side case. A full organ specification is available in the Church. Apart from minor changes the organ is still as per this rebuild.

Battlefield Communion Set-Photograph attached. There is no inscription but a framed notice below gives information about it. T was presented to the parish by Revd R.D. Davies (formerly a forces Chaplain). It was first used by him on 25th December 1918 at Treviso, Italy, and later at the Advanced Operating Centre at Corita, Italy and an aerodrome near Thiene, Italy. It was made by 1037 GHQ Reserve RT Company at Treviso. The Chalice is made out of the cap of an 18 pounder shell, the large paten out of a 45 Howitzer Shell and the small paten out of a 3" Austrian Berndof shell. The Cross is made out of a plank of the Pontoon Bridge that was laid across the River Piave, Italy for the final assault of the Allies in 1918

Nativity Set made by German prisoners of war in the Bela River camp in the Parish (which is now the Wings special school). It was given by the prisoners as an expression of gratitude in 1946 to the vicar and congregation for their "spirit of Christian brotherhood". The carved wooden figures are two-dimensional and have a joyous vitality which is remarkable in view of the circumstances they were made in- see NADFAS website for photographs .

NATEBY & OUTHGILL

There are no memorials in these villages. Apparently the memorial for the Mallerstang Valley was the Travers Institute- the Village Hall in Outhgill Village- named after a local clergyman. This opened in 1927 and closed in 1962, was demolished by around 1971 although issues regarding the land and its status with the Charity Commissioners continued well into the first decade of the 21st century. The minute books of the Mallerstang Village Meeting, at CRO, should give more details.

CROSBY-ON-EDEN

Memorial in the Church which is always locked- so no details or photograph. According to "Cumbrian Villages" by Kenneth Smith it is made of oak taken from the cadet training ship Britannia, at Dartmouth from 1869 to 1905.

Of the WW1 casualties 2 are also commemorated on a family gravestone- Richard Nixon died 1/7/1916 aged 25 in France, Joseph Nixon died 25/11/1917 aged 22 in France.

In the Churchyard there are also war graves for 3 post WW2 casualties, which is quite remarkable for such a small village.

Albert Frederick Fowler of the 11th Hussars, died 25/1/1957 aged 20

Laurence Nicholas Salter of the Royal Armoured Corps, died 4/5/1955 aged 17

Harry Scrivener of the 1st Kings Dragoon Guards died 25/1/1957 aged 30

IVEGILL

Lectern- Benin Massacre 1897- Was given in memory of James Arthur Phillips, the son of the Vicar of Ivegill. He was Acting Consul of the Niger Coast Protectorate. He led an expedition of 9 White Colonial Officers and 250 native soldiers masquerading as porters to persuade the King of Benin to give up human sacrifice and to discuss trading matters. On 4th January 1897 he and 6 of the other white men and 241 of the Porters were killed when they were ambushed by surprise by troops of the Kingdom of Beninat Ugbino Village, near Gweto. The Colonial Government swiftly retaliated and captured Benin City 6 weeks later-Transcription & 2 Photographs attached (is now on permanent loan to Carlisle Cathedral)
